

DXC Business Exchange - Transform Services

Streamline for more efficient interactions

Focus on your competencies and trading partner relationships, instead of technical issues. Outsource to DXC. From connectivity, to translation, media conversion, and archiving—we know it.

Insights

- DXC has more than 25 years of electronic data interchange (EDI) and trading community integration experience.
- Our business exchange services are customized and priced to fit your needs.
- We connect 130,000+ trading partners, spanning all industries and regions.

Your business interacts with numerous trading partners who use diverse proprietary and standard formats for transactions. Those transaction processes span multiple levels of automation and disparate systems—ranging from high-volume, processing mainframes to stand-alone workstations.

Not only are you challenged to keep up with this complex trading community, you also have to address growing numbers of security and privacy imperatives.

Manage the translation, compliance checks, and supplemental business validations of electronic business documents within your entire trading community as an outsourced service using DXC Business Exchange Transform.

Boost compliance and data accuracy

By outsourcing transaction translation functions to DXC, you can focus on your core competencies and business relationships with trading partners—instead of spending time and money on technical issues.

Outsourcing also delivers benefits such as:

- Increases data accuracy
- Ensures industry compliance
- Reduces complexity
- Enhances flexibility

Get an affordable, scalable solution

DXC Business Exchange Transform manages the translation of business transactions among trading partners' computer systems on an outsourced basis.
